CONDITIONS OF SALE

1. All bills are payable in cash before delivery.

2. The undersigned has exercised reasonable care to catalogue and describe correctly the property to be sold, but it does not warrant the correctness of description, genuineness, authenticity or condition of said property.

3. The highest bidder accepted by the Auctioneers shall be the buyer. If a dispute arises between two or more bidders, the Auctioneers may, in their discretion, determine who is the successful bidder, and their decision shall be final; or the Auctioneers may reoffer and resell the article in dispute.

4. The Auctioneers reserve the right to reject any bid that they shall deem to be detrimental to the sale of any article offered.

5. The name and address of the buyer of each article, or lot shall be given to the Auctioneers immediately following the sale thereof, and payment of the whole purchase price, or such part thereof as the undersigned may require, shall be immediately made by the purchaser thereof. If the foregoing condition, or any other applicable condition herein, is not complied with, the sale may, at the option of the Auctioneers, be canceled, and the article, or lot, reoffered for sale.

6. No claims allowed after the removal of goods.

7. Articles are exposed for public examination one or more days prior to sale and are sold just as they are without recourse.

8. The lots to be taken away at the buyer's expense and risk within twenty-four hours of conclusion of the sale, and the remainder of the purchase money to be absolutely paid or otherwise settled for to the satisfaction of the manager on or before delivery, in default of which the undersigned will not hold themselves responsible if the lots be lost, stolen, damaged or destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser; and no goods to be removed unless receipted bills are presented.

9. If the purchase price has not been paid in full within the time aforesaid, the undersigned may either cancel the sale, and any partial payment already made shall thereupon be forfeited as liquidated damages, or it may resell the same, without notice to the buyer and for his account and risk, and hold him responsible for any deficiency.

10. The undersigned are in no manner connected with the business of cartage or packing and shipping of purchases, and although they will afford to purchasers every facility for employing careful carriers and packers, they will not hold themselves responsible for the acts and charges of the parties engaged for such service.

11. These conditions cannot be altered except in writing by the undersigned or by announcement by the Auctioneers at time of sale.

24 AUTOGRAPHS. A collection of Autograph Letters, Signed; Letters, Signed; and Documents, Signed; of President Lincoln; his two Vice Presidents; Members of his Cabinet; Members of his Family; his Law Partners; his Associates; Members of the Cast, and the Proprietor of the Ford's Theatre, along with the Author of the Play, the Night Lincoln was Assassinated; the Trial Judge of the Conspirators; the Various Clergymen at his Funeral; the Persons at his Bedside when he Died and the Leading Citizens at his Obsequies in New York City; Portraits; Reproductions; Newspapers, etc. Probably the most Unique Collection of Lincolniana ever Assembled in one Volume. Nearly 100 pieces laid in a blue cloth folio volume.

Lincoln, Abraham, D.S. Johnson, Andrew, D.S., with a pencil note in his autograph signed A. J. Hamlin, Hannibal, A.L.S. Seward, William H., 3 A.LL.S. Chase, Salmon P., 3 A.LL.S. Fessenden, W. P., A.L.S. McCulloch, Hugh, A.L.S. Cameron, Simon, 2 A.LL.S. and 1 L.S. Stanton, Edwin W., L.S. Smith, Caleb, A.L.S. Usher, J. P., A.N.S. Blair, M., 2 A.L.S. Dennison, W. M., 2 A.LL.S. Bates, Edward, A.L.S. Speed, James, L.S. Welles, Gideon, L.S. Hay, John, A.L.S. and L.S. Holt, J., A.L.S. Nicolay, John G., L.S. Corbett, Boston, A.L.S. Ford, John T. (Proprietor of Ford's Theatre) A.L.S. Ferguson, W. and Keene, Laura, both in the cast of "American Cousin," the night Lincoln was assassinated, 2 A.LL.S. Taylor, Tom, author of our "American Cousin," A.L.S. Townsend, E. W., A.L.S. Wallace, Gen. Lew, A.L.S. Davis, David, (one of Lincoln's original boomers in 1860) A.L.S. Claflin, H. B., D.S. Tweed, Wm. M., (Boss), L.S. Astor, Wm. B., A.L.S. Curtis, G. W., A.L.S. Cooper, Peter, L.S. and D.S. Evarts, Wm. M., A.L.S. and L.S. Clews, Henry, A.L.S. Fish, Hamilton, 2 A.LL.S. Dix, John A., A.L.S. Taylor, Moses, A.L.S. Gunther, C.G., A.L.S. Osgood, Samuel (delivered funeral oration), 2 A.LL.S. Tyng. Stephen H. (offered prayer at obsequies). Bancroft, George, A.L.S. Depew, Chauncey M., A.L.S. Sternberg, George (attended Lincoln at his deathbed), L.S. Barnes, J. M. (Surgeon General), L.S. Gurley, P. D. (Lincoln's pastor who preached his funeral sermon), A.L.S. Lincoln, Robert T. (President's son), 2 A.LL.S. Sumner, Charles, A.L.S. Shields, James (challenged Lincoln to a duel in 1842 which ended in a laugh and they afterwards became fast friends), L.S. Douglas, Stephen, A.L.S. and A.D.S. Stuart, John T. (Lincoln's law partner), A.D.S. Logan, S. T. (Lincoln's law partner), A.D.S. Herndon, Wm., A.D.S. (Lincoln's law partner).

The above collection is probably the most unique ever offered as one lot and with the addition of about a dozen items described elsewhere in this catalog would make a magnificent show piece. Aside from value, many of the items would probably take years to assemble as the collector who made this volume must have spent many interesting hours, or rather years, in gathering this material.

AN EXCEPTIONAL RARITY!

290 LINCOLN, (ABRAHAM). Autograph Letter, Signed. 1 p., oblong, 12mo. To "My dear Wife." (Mary Todd Lincoln) Dated Washington, May 24, 1848.

Having bought and sold over 1200 Lincoln letters, this is the only one to our knowledge addressed "My dear wife." The letters to Mrs. Lincoln in the Kolb sale were really telegrams and never left the telegraph office. With the exception of the Lincoln-Hooker letter, sold at our galleries over a year ago for $15,000.00, no other letter has impressed us so greatly. What a story Dr. Barton could have made of it! The text follows:

"Washington, May 24, 1848

My dear wife:
Enclosed is the draft as I promised you in my letter of Sunday. It is drawn in favor of your father, and I doubt not, he will give you the money for it at once. I write this letter in the post-office, surrounded by men and noise, which, together with the fact that there is nothing new, makes me write so short a letter.

Affectionately

A Lincoln"

From the collection of Emanuel Hertz who considered it the gem.

LINCOLN'S FAMOUS RAILROAD CASE

220

291 LINCOLN, (ABRAHAM). Autograph Letter, signed. 1½ pp., folio with page of super-scription. To Hon. William Martin. Dated Springfield, March 4, 1851.

A long and most important letter on his famous railroad case, reading in part: "I agree with the New York lawyer, that it is best not to amend the minutes—In my view if there were no minutes, no entries in writing of the calls, then we could prove by parol that the Directors required the payments and procured the publication of notices of them in the papers. My difficulty was that the being entered of record, and the fact getting out in evidence, we could not proceed without producing the record. If I am right in this it follows that if the records when produced, are defective, the defects can be supplied by parol, Etc."

140

292 LINCOLN, (ABRAHAM). Three Original Documents, written entirely in Lincoln's hands. 6pp., folio. Comprising the Charges and successful culmination of the "American House Case" in which one of the owners tried to swindle his partner, Lee C. Wallace. 1852.

A fine legal item.

150

17

293 LINCOLN, (ABRAHAM). Document, signed. 1p., oblong, 8vo. Dated Circuit Court, Illinois, December 8, 1857.

Framed with engraved portrait of Lincoln.

294 LINCOLN, (ABRAHAM). Autograph Letter, signed. 1 full page, 12mo. To his Aunt, Mrs. Marie L. Bullock. Dated Springfield, January 3, 1859.

Springfield, Ill. Jan 3, 1859.

Dear Aunt
I have recently had two letters from our cousin Charles Case, in relation to your business—It annoys me to have to say that I can not collect money now—I now believe the quickest way I can get your money is for me to buy the debts of you, as soon as I can get in any money of my own to do it with. I keep some money loaned at ten per cent; and when I can get hold of some, it would be a ready investment for me to just take their debts off your hands; and I shall try to do so—I think it will be better all round than to resort to the law—This does not apply to the small debt of eighty odd dollars, upon which I shall sue, and foreclose the mortgage next Court.
All well.

Yours as ever,

A. Lincoln.

THE FAMOUS CASE OF THE BANK OF THE REPUBLIC ET AL. PROBABLY THE MOST VOLUMINOUS LEGAL DOCUMENT, ALL IN LINCOLN'S HAND, EXTANT

295 LINCOLN, (ABRAHAM). Original Autograph Document of 15 pages foolscap, crowded with marginal annotations, signed Lincoln and Herndon. Together with other Papers in the Case of Charles W. Rockwell, Charles H. Rockwell, John Rockwell, E. I. Tinkham & Co.'s Bank, and the Bank of the Republic, to restrain the State Auditors from requisitioning them from liquidating the Banks for a dispute over notes amounting to nearly $100,000.00. Dated March 1, 1859.

Lincoln's plea to the Court, entirely in his handwriting comprises 15 crowded foolscap pages, which is most likely the longest known legal document of his extant. The other documents in the case consist of notices from the State Auditor, etc.

296 LINCOLN, (ABRAHAM). Autograph Endorsement, signed by both Lincoln and William H. Seward. May 25, 1861.

297 LINCOLN, (ABRAHAM). Autograph Letter, signed. 1 p., 12mo. To "Hon Sec. of War." Executive Mansion. August 6, 1861.

A request to the Secretary of War for some appointments, adding "Let these appointments be sent me immediately, unless there be some objection unknown to me."

298 LINCOLN, (ABRAHAM). Autograph Endorsement, signed (on last page of a letter). 9 lines. November 8, 1861.

LINCOLN MAKES MEAGHER BRIGADIER GENERAL

This letter appointing Thomas F. Meagher Brigadier General, contains the following notation in Cameron's hand, "Approved. Simon Cameron Sec'y of War. War Dept Dec 20/61."

A LETTER SUMMONING HIS CABINET TO DISCUSS EMANCIPATION PROCLAMATION

300 LINCOLN, (ABRAHAM). Autograph Letter, signed. 1 p., 12mo. To Hon. Sec. of State. Dated Executive Mansion, March 5, 1862. (In cloth case.)

An Historic Document reading:

"Executive Mansion

March 5, 1862

Hon. Sec. of State
My dear Sir
Please summon the Cabinet to meet me here at 7 Oclock this evening.
Yours truly

A. Lincoln"

The Secretary of State, William H. Seward, has written his name at bottom of letter. On March 6, 1862, Lincoln sent a message to Congress recommending Compensated Emancipation to preserve the Union.

301 LINCOLN, (ABRAHAM). Autograph Letter, signed. 1 p., 12mo. Executive Mansion. Washington, July 12, 1862.

In this letter Lincoln promotes Brigadier Generals Crittenden, Nelson, and McCook to the rank of Major Generals.

302 LINCOLN, (ABRAHAM). Document, signed. Folio, vellum. Dated July 30, 1862. Framed.

Signed also by Stanton.

303 LINCOLN, (ABRAHAM). Autograph Letter, signed. 2 pp., 8vo. To the Secretary of War. Dated Executive Mansion, Washington, September 9, 1862. With autograph note by William H. Seward.

An extremely interesting letter paying tribute to the assistance rendered to the Union cause by the Catholics, and associating the names of two important cabinet members, Seward and Stanton.

LINCOLN ON RELIGIOUS AND RACE TOLERANCE

4/25

304 LINCOLN, (ABRAHAM). Autograph Note, signed (on the last page of a letter from the Baptists of Port Royal). 1 p., 8vo. Dated September 29, 1862.

"It seems by the within that there is danger of the different religious denominations having some collision in their ministering among the colored people about Port Royal, and perhaps elsewhere. I should think each church should minister according to its own rules, without interference by others differing from them; and if there still be difficulties about places of worship, a real Christian charity, and forbearance on the part of all might obviate it. With these views I submit to subject to the Secretary of War.

A. Lincoln"

305 LINCOLN, (ABRAHAM). Autograph Letter, signed. 1 p., 12mo. (To the Secretary of War) Executive Mansion. Washington, October 17, 1862.

A naive request of a favor for a friend to the Secretary of War.

LINCOLN HAS SOFT SPOT FOR ILLINOIS

375

306 LINCOLN, (ABRAHAM). Autograph Letter, signed. 1 full page, 8vo. To the Secretary of War. Dated Washington, December 26, 1862.

"Two Ohio regiments and one Illinois regiment were captured at Hartville, have been parolled, and are now at Columbus, Ohio. This brings the Ohio regiments substantially to their homes. I am strongly impressed with the belief that the Illinois regiment better be sent to Illinois, where it will be recruited and put in good condition, by the time they are exchanged, so as to re-enter the service. They did not misbehave, as I am satisfied, so that they should receive no treatment, nor have anything withheld from them, by way of punishment.

Yours truly

A. Lincoln".

95

307 LINCOLN, (ABRAHAM). Autograph Letter, signed. 1 p., 12mo. To "Hon. Sec. of War." Executive Mansion, January 19, 1863.

90

308 LINCOLN, (ABRAHAM). Autograph Letter, signed. 1 p., 8vo. To Hon. Secretary of War. Dated Executive Mansion, Washington, September 18, 1863. (Framed.)

"Hon Sec. of War.
Sir;
Gov. Johnson, of Tenn, in his dispatch, mentions on paper which he says he drew up, on re-organization, which I endorsed in the same way, and which I understand him to suppose is on file in your Department.—If it is then please send me a copy of it.

Yours truly

A. Lincoln"

WHITMAN'S LAST MS ON LINCOLN

130

480 WHITMAN, (WALT). The Original Autograph Manuscript of a Poem "Abraham Lincoln—born February 12, 1809." Written in ink on 1 p., 8vo, with numerous alterations all in the author's hand.

The first verse reads:

"A Nation on its way betrayed
Put in the slayer's toil
By him on this day born
The nation guided, saved."

This MS was obtained from Thomas Donaldson, Whitman's literary executor, who said it was the last thing Whitman wrote.
